

[illegible]

This matrix will be used by students for self-evaluation. They plot in the grid the number of words and sentences they write in each of the four exercises, in which they have to demonstrate the number of words and sentences they have learnt. Students and teacher appreciate the progress. Self-evaluation is only for getting a feedback on the students' progress in learning English.